

1 of this Convention.

2 I have heard it said that this matter has been 3 substantially decided. I have heard it said for all sub-
4 stantial purposes the issue is closed.

5 On the otherhand, I must say to this Convention
6 that I think at this stage of the proceedings we have got to 7 stop and ask ourselves by whom is this Constitution being 8 written and for whom is it being written.

9 We have gone full circle on this question of 10 Attorney General, and we have come back, it seems to me, 11 to the point that we must face up to. We have had the 12 little Hoover Commission work on this point, and they 13 recommended an appointed Attorney General.

14 We have had the Constitutional Commission work
15 on this, and they recommended an appointed Attorney General.

16 We have had the Executive Committee of this 17 Convention work on it, and they have recommended an appointed 18 Attorney General.

19 Now we have before us an attempt to find some other 20 solution to this problem.

21 I would like to remind you all that Maryland
